These Are The Best Steakhouses In Every State

California: CUT (Beverly Hills)

Wolfgang Puck's CUT is a sleek restaurant that's become a favorite haunt of Hollywood's biggest stars. These household names are attracted to the restaurant for the same reason any other diner is: the incredible selection of expertly prepared steaks.

Japanese A5 wagyu, USDA Prime beef, and both American and Australian wagyu are all on offer. The showstoppers are three sharing steaks: a 50-ounce wagyu tomahawk, a 32-ounce wagyu porterhouse, and a 24-ounce USDA Prime New York strip.

Cut

Cut isn't just a hotel restaurant, it's one of the best steakhouses in Los Angeles, from celebrity chef Wolfgang Puck. Opulent dishes abound on the high-end menu, including a seriously rich bone marrow flan and lots of wagyu.
